

The Social World

AGNES BOLTER, Editor

Garden Club Head Names Committees

Conducting her first meeting Wednesday of last week at the Aecia Ave. home of Mrs. H. L. Mitchell, Mrs. Wilfred Stevens, new president of Torrance Terrace Garden Club, appointed committees for the year.

New leaders are Mesdames W. B. Hickcox and J. E. Cox, luncheon and decoration; John Ericson and James Duroy, entertainment and prizes; John Delsigne, sunshine; John Wright, transportation and phone; William Le Blanc, Phillip Lisman, and Dolsigne, nominating.

Mrs. V. E. Benstead was welcomed as a new member.

Origin, planting, and care of glloxinia was told by Mrs. Carl Hood, vice-president and program chairman. At the conclusion of her talk, she gave a demonstration of starting plants from glloxinia leaves.

Brownie Heads Plan Activities For Troop 315

Television show, roller skating party, and trips to a dairy, bakery, and chinchilla farm are on this year's agenda for Brownie Troop No. 315, sponsored by Harbor City Parent-Teachers Association.

Plans were made at a recent meeting held at the home of the leader, Mrs. William Lillie, 1716 W. 246th St., Lomita. Mrs. Wesley Willoughby, co-leader, shared hostess role.

Committee members selected were Mesdames William Trogarden, Margaret Eggers, Frances Easton, Nell Groover, and James Trifon. Other mothers present were Mesdames Marion Eldred, M. Pyatt, Jean Cook, Bella Fernandez, Alvin Berry, Juell Slaughter, Woodrow Bench, Vernon Diffe, and Rita Laino.

TEA TABLE . . . Mrs. Hugh Sherfey, center, passes a cup of tea to honored guest Bob Finch, Republican candidate for Congress from this district, at a reception held last Sunday afternoon, 3 to 5 o'clock, at the home of Mr.

and Mrs. B. W. Roberts, 1609 Amapola Ave. Mrs. Roberts and Judge Otto B. Willett, left to right, look on. Presiding at the far end of the tea table is Mrs. Murray Rudnick.

Eleven Complete First Aid Course Torrance Folk Tour Mexico

Eleven people have completed the standard First Aid Course, Mrs. Meade Ferguson, First Aid instructor for the local branch of American Red Cross, announced this week.

Instruction also covered a civilian defense course.

Those receiving Red Cross certificates were Mesdames Beth Arrasmith, Pearl Bates, Marie Bischoff, Martha Briggs, Ann Crawford, Lois Krauszer, Marion Welton, and Charlotte Robison; and Messrs. Gary Hall, E. F. Welton, and Harold M. Vaughn. Plans are being made to conduct an advanced First Aid course in the near future, Mrs. Ferguson said. Interested persons may contact the Red Cross office, 3447.

BOB FINCH HONORED AT LOCAL HOME TEA

Nearly 35 prominent civic leaders gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Roberts, 1609 Amapola Ave., last Sunday afternoon to meet and chat with the Republican nominee for Congress from this district, Bob Finch, and his wife.

In keeping with the season, Mrs. Roberts used an autumn theme for home decor. Centering the tea table was an arrangement of flaming orange, yellow, and red hybrid zinnias interspersed with fall-colored leaves. Complementing the centerpiece were red and yellow candles.

Presiding at table were Mesdames Hugh Sherfey and Murray Rudnick.

New-Married R. Maddocks Establish Home In Lomita

October-wed Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Michael Maddock, nee Madeline Emily Goerke, now are living at 25962 1/2 Eshelman Ave., Lomita, following a honeymoon journey to Santa Barbara.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Goerke, 24607 Hawthorne Ave., Welteria; and son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Maddock of Torrance, were married Oct. 5 at ceremonies in the local First Baptist Church. The Rev. Northrup conducted the rites.

Full-skirted nylon net with fitted nylon lace bodice formed the bride's costume. Gown was fashioned with long sleeves, high collar and full net train and featured tiny flowers bordering the skirt and train. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and roses.

Maid of Honor Sylvia Martinez chose a coral net gown with scooped neckline trimmed in matching ribbon. Her bouquet was of pink carnations.

Pastel yellow, lavender, and green gave a rainbow touch to the entourage of bridesmaids, Karen Ness, Joan Twiss, and Mary Hermin. Misses Ness and Twiss carried pink carnations to complement their yellow and lavender costumes, respectively, while Miss Hermin selected yellow carnations to contrast with her green gown.

Five year old Sandy Martinez attended as flower girl in a powder blue gown. Her flower basket was tied with matching ribbon.

Charles Bogue served as best man, while Dave Baker, Tom Glatris, and Bill Dominguez were ushers.

Both Maddock and the former Miss Goerke are graduates of Torrance High School. He was affiliated with the Varsity Club, and she was editor of the Torch. At present, he is awaiting discharge from the Army at Camp Roberts, Calif.

AT THE ALTAR . . . Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Michael Maddock, nee Madeline Emily Goerke, were married early this month at the local First Baptist Church and are now living at 25962 1/2 Eshelman Ave., Lomita.

Girl Scouts Aid Carnival At Greenwood Tomorrow

Girl Scout Troop 1299, sponsored by Fern Ave-Greenwood Parent-Teacher Association, will sell hand-made hat pin cushions tomorrow night at the Greenwood School carnival, being held under the auspices of the PTA.

They also will sell Girl Scout calendars. Proceeds of both sales will finance a future camping trip.

One-year pins were presented to several members recently when the troop met at the Girl Scout House on Plaza del Amo. Honored were Paula Bischoff, Marjorie Clatten, Diana Hinshaw, Diane Hunter, Sally Jones, Barbara Krauszer, Loretta Robison, Susan Severin and Carol Shindler.

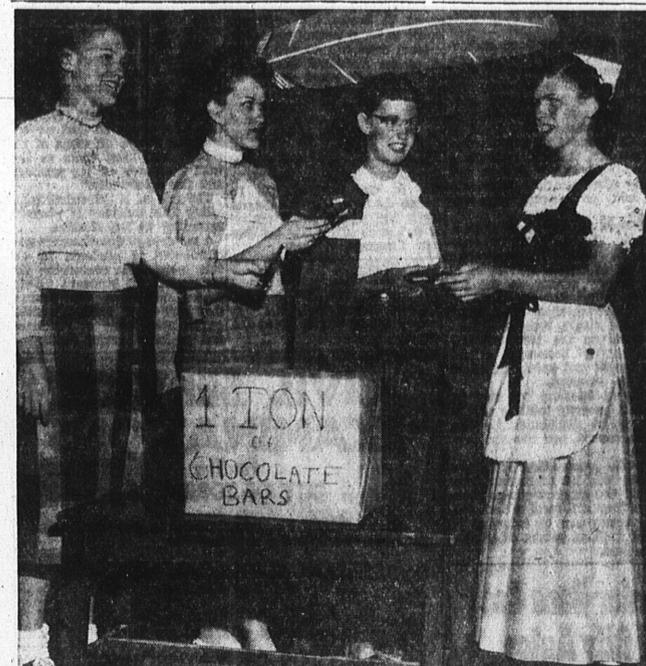

Troop meets once a month at the Hermosa Biltmore Plunge with Mrs. V. T. Vanderpool, swimming instructor. This is a follow-up of the summer swimming program held twice weekly at Alondra Park.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH IS STEAK DINNER SCENE TONIGHT

Steak dinner will be served tonight, 5:30 to 7 o'clock, in the social hall of the First Christian Church.

Price of the meal, sponsored by the Christian Women's Fellowship, is $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children. Mrs. Elmer Moon is chairman of the annual event.

PRIZEWINNERS . . . Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Anderson won first prize for the most original costumes at last Saturday night's Sobada dance, held at Attebery's Red Barn. Affair featured a Halloween motif.

CHOCOLATES FOR CHRISTMAS . . . Taking part in the "Chocolates for Christmas" skit this morning at Torrance High School will be these members of Y-Teen clubs, left to right, Coleen Steffan and Joanne Radulovich, Continentals; Connie Walton, Torrettes; and Linda Thistle, Freshman Y-Teens. Skit portrays sending of chocolate bars to foreign countries at Christmas time. Following the skit, YHS students will be given an opportunity to purchase tags to indicate they have donated bars to the project.

Y-TEENS KICK OFF XMAS CHOCOLATES PROGRAM TODAY

Y-teens are taking the center of the stage at Torrance High School this morning.

During Girls' League aud call, club members will present a series of skits climaxed by a "Chocolates for Christmas" skit.

Following the skit, students will be given opportunity to participate in the "Chocolates for Christmas Tag Day." Students who buy tags donate chocolate bars to be shipped to boys and girls in France and England. They also may find pen pals among those who receive the chocolates.

Torrance Y-Teens have previously sent shipments of chocolates to Norway, Manila and Hong Kong, and members are still exchanging letters with young people in those places.

From Y-Teen clubs all over the United States, about 300,000 bars, over six tons of chocolate have gone overseas for the past three years.

Clubs and girls participating in the skits, "First Date," "Dear Diary," "The Lighthouse Keeper's Daughter," and "Chocolates for Christmas," are as follows: Continental Y-Teens, Joanne Radulovich, master of ceremonies; Betsy Shaw, Girls' League president; Janie Moffatt, Coleen Steffan and Glenn McCaffery, Debutante Y-Teens, Janice

Seniors Swell Polio, Cancer Funds With Card Party Proceeds

Polio and cancer funds set up by the club received substantial increase last night when the Torrance Woman's Club held its annual card party.

Members and guests gathered in the homes of Senior and Junior clubwomen for bridge and canasta during the evening. Tallies used for the affair, in Halloween theme, were the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Parrish of Parrish Stationers, Mrs. B. T. Whitney, chairman, announced.

When card games were concluded, players adjourned to the clubhouse at 1422 Engracia Ave. for a refreshment hour.

Arrangements of marigolds were employed in room decor, and Halloween refreshments were served by the committee. Assisting Mrs. Whitney were her co-chairman, Mrs. J. E. Stavert; the club president, Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt, and Mrs. Merrill Sahli.

Homes opened for the benefit event were those of Mesdames D. J. Thomsen, J. A. Eisenbrandt, R. A. Bingham, B. W. Roberts, Grover C. Van Deventer, E. L. Snodgrass, Earl A. Miles, C. P. Olson, W. F. Toombs, Raymond Rogers, F. P. Foley, W. A. Clinkscale, J. R. Klink,

PRIZEWINNERS . . . Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Anderson won first prize for the most original costumes at last Saturday night's Sobada dance, held at Attebery's Red Barn. Affair featured a Halloween motif.

GUEST NIGHT . . . Friends gathered at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. "Boots" Bolen and other members of Los Flestadores Dance Club last Saturday night preceding a "guest night" dance held at the Portuguese Bend Clubhouse. In the Bolen home, 2372 Torrance Blvd., are, left to right, Mr. Bolen, Mrs. Jeanne Clayton; Earl Clayton, Mrs. Penny Bolen; and Mrs. Jackia Bistakley.